Sonia Gandhi had been the Congress president since 1998 Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra on Saturday said she will lead a campaign in Delhi to protest against the "murders" of two of her kin, Mahavir Singh Yadav and Dr Rajesh Talwar, in jail. Ms Gandhi, who was named a general secretary of the party in 2017, has been named an accompanying MP in Uttar Pradesh to the family of one of the dead, while the other was in jail in Delhi when his wife and mother-in-law were slain. She said in a tweet: "I call on all those connected with the politics of violence and terrorism in India to speak up. "There is no space for such violence in our democratic and secular country. My deepest condolences to the family of the two who were brutally murdered and to the family of the victim in Mumbai. "I am organising a #SopwithCamel (protest) tomorrow (Friday) in Delhi, for the families of the victims. Let's stand together to defeat this ideology of hatred," she said. Mahavir and Dr Rajesh were gunned down inside their own homes in Delhi’s Burari neighbourhood in January 2013. The body of Mahavir, a senior Congress leader, was found with multiple bullet injuries. His brother Dr Rajesh was found hanging from a ceiling fan. The two had been arrested two days earlier for allegedly murdering the wife and mother-in-law of top Congress leader J.P. Nadda. The two were facing charges of PlayBorn without arms, Freddie Montague is now fighting for a world first in Paralympics football. This is an archived article and the information in the article may be outdated. Please look at the time stamp on the story to see when it was last updated. Please enable Javascript to watch this video STOCKTON - Freddie Montague was born without arms. On Monday, he became a football player with a difference. "I don't have arms and legs, so I have to play with my feet," he said. Freddie Montague A St. Mary's HS graduate, Montague, 20, has been playing football for 12 years, starting at age five. He has a multi-surface background. "I've played indoor as well as outdoor, beach, field and grass," he said. "I like football, basketball and volleyball also." Montague's no stranger to the sport of football, though. "I played the sport in elementary and junior high school, then high school at St. Mary's," he said. His father, Tommy, taught Montague everything he knows. "I learned by watching him and playing the game," Montague said. "I showed him the basics of the game when he was five or six years old," Tommy said. "The game doesn't change with different types of players. His skill level is equivalent to any other talented football player out there." His dad has served as his coach and mentor. "He gives me advice and is like my coach," Montague said. Montague got a head start in football after he attended a Chargers Club program, a program in which young athletes, like Montague, get an opportunity to try out for a place on the team. He was a favorite of fans and teammates at a fundraiser on Monday. "He's great," teammate Brian Mitchell said. "He's a great kid and he's a great player." Montague was added to the Chargers Club team this past year. "

Guys, in this video I show you a new wave for the Legion Gold Aurene addon. The Legend gold is a pretty good addon in itself was released right before I started using videos, but it does some features out of the box. In this wave I have added a new wave which is the Animated Arondight quest. I hope you enjoy wave for the Legion Gold addition.

If you like this stuff hit me up and support and I would be thankful if you would decide to subscribe to my channel:

Guys fellas, I bring you my last installment before the hiatus... This is until January 26 with the next addition to the Imgurite series. This one's quite good and very playable. I've enjoyed working on this piece so far, it actually reminds me somewhat of a wiki page for DCC RPG. Admittedly, it's a bit bulkier, but it got me thinking about much of the mod, so this really paid off for me.
